WINTER WEATHER

IT COULD BE WORSE. As you gaze glumly at the falling snow and brood about your lack of winter clothes, remember that it could be worse.

Much worse. For instance, in 1921, 76 inches of snow fell at Silver Lake, Colo., in just 24 hours. And at Tahoe, Calif., 108 inches of snow came down between January 12 and 15, 1952.

The record snowfall for a calendar month occurred at Tamarack, Calif., which got 390 inches during January, 1911, according to World Book Encyclopedia. In the same year a record depth of snow accumulated at Tamarack, where 451 inches covered the ground.

The all-time U. S. record for snowfall in one season was set from July, 1953, to June, 1956, when 1,000.3 inches of snow fell at the 5,500-foot level of Mount Rainier, Wash. Be glad you don't live there.

All these figures are records, and therefore unusual. But individual snowfalls of 30 inches are not unusual at all. In the hills southeast of Lake Erie

There is an age group for all from the first grade through adults. Both Junior and Senior MYF groups will join in the study instead of having their regular meetings. Plans to attend with your families. There will be motion pictures and a guest speaker during the school session of the third week. All who are members or who affiliate themselves with the Methodist Church are invited. The school will last an hour, from 6:30 to 7:30 p. m.

The attitude of our courts today is now in the process of change on this problem. Ten years ago most courts regarded a seller's deception as a valid sales pitch and a risk which the consumer assumed. However, the tendency today is to regard misrepresentations of fitness as imposing absolute liability on the manufacturer. But this more equitable position of the courts is undertaken only on a case-to-case basis. What is needed is legislation to prevent misrepresentation and deception before it misleads or harms consumers.

- 3. That two separate library facilities be incorporated in the plans for the school
- 4. That there be access to the physical education plant from both wings and that under no circumstances shall students from the two levels be using the same facilities at the same time
- 5. That the building be so designed that entrances to the cafeterias are available to both wings so that of the two levels of students will not be intermingled during lunch hours
- 6. That a senior-high teacher never be assigned to teach a junior-high academic class unless he has had special training in a particular field in the junior high level of a reading, music, art, etc.
- 7. That rules and regulations governing social and athletic events be drawn up before the school opens and that these rules and regulations be the work of a committee of experienced teachers, parents of students at both levels and students at both levels.

1. That there be a large study hall for students of the upper level of students close to the library and that the circulating of books be programs provided at least four study periods per week which can be used in library work

2. That a salary scale be adopted that will attract experienced teachers and that will place them on a financial basis with their fellow educators at the local college. Nothing under an eleven step scale from $2,700 to $7,200 for the holder of a bachelor's degree should be considered for the year 1947-48. This is well below scales already in effect outside Maine

3. That the whole system be decentralized with teachers responsible first to head each of the major departments. This should be done at the very beginning in order to avoid waste in ordering textbooks and equipment and securing the disposal of the best value available for the money thousands of dollars worth wasted at Brunswick. Besides the school librarianship, the school department heads, including the principals up to the superintendent and with representatives of the school boards, should be organized in a school board of all school districts as they say in New York.

Report

Sen.

My Water Quality Act of 1965 gave us the tools to effectively control and abate water pollution. To make those tools work, we need the muscle of more Federal, state and local money.

A recent report by my Subcommittee on Air and Water Pollution documents this need. For instance, the present level of Federal aid for treatment plants is $450 million a year. But my Subcommittee has conservatively estimated that present needs, in our major cities alone, total more than $1.5 billion. In just six years, the total will double.

Special concern should be shown for the low income consumer. For those with the fewest dollars to spend are often likely to be least able to spend those dollars wisely and effectively.

The truth-in-packaging bill, if passed, will cost taxpayers nothing for it will set standards, not authorize the appropriations of money. Should it be voted on this Session, I intend to support it.

My Subcommittee found that the price tag to the nation for needed treatment facilities will be $29 billion by 1972.

In our quest for clean water, we are in a race against the clock; a race we cannot afford to lose. Our research analysts tell us there will not be enough water for our society by 1963, unless we act now.

To meet this challenge, there will have to be a greater effort by all levels of government. To beef up Federal participation and to stimulate our states and cities.

Senator Σ. Jackson

The Maine Fish and Game Department has cautioned people about the dangers of snowmobiles.

The Department said that people should guard against breakdowns which leave them stranded in desolate woods.

Users were urged by the department to travel in pairs and carry skills, snowshoes, and extra parts for the snowmobile.

Two deaths resulted last year, the department said, from misuse of the vehicles.

FARCE TO BE PRESENTED AT GOULD FEBRUARY 17

"Golden Fleece," a farce that delighted New York theatregoers during the 1959-60 season, will be presented by Gould Academy at the Bingham Theatre on Feb. 17, with Peter Howard (Lt. Howard) starred as a Naval officer with a neat scheme for using his ship's computer.

The action is set in the lavish suite of a hotel in Venice where Lt. Howard, Bill Eames (Gilliam) and Charles Jacobs (Eldridge) as his fellow-conspirators have set up a communications center for working out a system to beat a nearby gambling casino's roulette wheel. Their plan is for a colleague to telephone them the winning numbers, and then to flash them to their ship from the hotel window by means of a "borrowed" blinker-light, where information can be fed into the electric computer, and so they can learn the wheel's probabilities. With this system they feel they can't lose.

But some additional complications arise that the computer can't handle. These are the presence of the financial strategists commanding admiral in the suite below theirs, as well as the admiral's pretty daughter, and they bring about a series of riotously funny situations. The admiral is expressively gruff, his daughter romantic and affectionate. The sure-thing betting plan runs into some hilariously madcap snags.

Marjorie Howard will be seen

WOODSTOCK HIGH SCHOOL QUALIFIED TO PARTICIPATE IN SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

Woodstock High School, Bryant Pond, has been selected by Massachusetts Trade School, Boston, as one of the New England High Schools qualified in the annual Massachusetts Trade Scholarship Awards.

Massachusetts Trades Schools, Boston, Mass., established in 1936, and one of the oldest and largest vocational schools in the northeast, has been making these scholarship awards annually since 1963, in order to encourage more high school graduates to enter the vocational fields.

This scholarship, in the amount of $300.00, represents half-tuition, and will be awarded to one outstanding male graduate, Class of 1966, of Woodstock High School, the winner to be determined by members of the high school's own faculty. This scholarship fund may be used by the appointee toward any program of day vocational training, at Massachusetts Trades Schools, in his choice of Machinist, Machine and Tool Designer, Draftsman, Electro-Mechanical Draftsman or Radio-Television Serviceman.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the high school's Guidance Division, or by writing directly to the Registrar, Massachusetts Trades Schools, 161 High Street, Boston, Mass.

as the attractive Navy daughter, Mike Chretien as the crusty admiral Merton Brown (Signalman Taylor) will have the role of an efficient signalman, very quick with a bottle, Ken Morse (Benjamin Dane) will appear as a stuffy patrician, Brian Buck (Pete de Luca) as a hoodlum and Ginevra Bean (Anne Knutson) as the girl friend of the math genius among the gambling trio.

Frank Vogt is directing this combination of romance, farce and mathematical combinations, and Jim Owen has designed and built its setting of a luxurious Venetian hotel-suite.

Rodney Swain and Robert Everett were inadvertently omitted from the roster of the recently published roster of the Boys' Ski Team at Gould Academy.

A SUBSCRIBER COMMENTS—

"It seems particularly disturbing that Bethel is to continue to be controlled somewhat from New York. It seems wholly inconceivable that the Directors of S. A. D. 2441 would commit themselves fully to an untied educational system with stringent strings attached."

It also seems a bit, shall we say, inconsistent, to read in the same issue of the Bethel Citizen that the incoming President of the Chamber of Commerce plans to promote Bethel and Maine, while the Directors of S. A. D. 44 plan to hire two New York firms to add them in their building plans. I'm sure there are Maine firms which are more familiar with Maine climate and needs than are the New Yorkers—rather odd to say the least."

Sincerity is the difference between writing and putting down words.
